

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

Saint Benedict Joseph Labre, Confessor
Raccolta #514

O wondrous pattern of Christian perfection, Saint Benedict Joseph, from thy earliest use of reason even to thy dying day thou didst keep unspotted the white robe of innocence, and, forsaking all things and becoming a pilgrim on the earth, thou didst gain naught therefrom save only suffering, privations and reproaches. Miserable sinner that I am, I kneel at thy feet, and return thanks to the infinite goodness of the Most High God who hath willed to imprint on thee the living likeness of His crucified Son. At the same time I am filled with confusion when I consider how different is my life from thine. Do thou, beloved Saint, have pity on me! Offer thy merits before the throne of the Eternal, and obtain for me the grace to follow thine example and to direct my actions according to the precepts and teachings of our divine Master: thus let me learn to love His sufferings and His humiliations, and to despise the pleasures and honors of earth: so that neither the fear of the former, nor the desire of the latter may ever induce me to transgress His holy law. May I merit in this manner to be acknowledged by Him and numbered amongst the blessed of His Father. Amen. Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

V. Pray for us, O holy Benedict Joseph,

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

O God, who didst cause Thy holy confessor, Benedict Joseph, to cleave unto Thee alone by his zeal for humility and his love for poverty: grant unto us, by the help of his merits, to despise all things earthly and to seek evermore the things that are heavenly. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days.

Spiritual Thought for the Week - Charity

An excellent way to practice love of Jesus Christ is to grow accustomed to keeping Him always present to our minds. This can be done in three ways: 1. Before performing an action, imagine how and with what spirit and intention He would do it, in order to imitate Him. 2. Think of Him ever gazing down on us from Heaven and showering us with His graces and counsels in abundance. 3. See Him in our neighbor. In this way all our actions will be performed with greater ease and perfection.
