

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

Saint Rita of Cascia, Widow – May 22

Saint Rita applied for entrance in the convent of the Augustinians in Cascia, after the murder of her husband. Her admittance was denied because the rule of the order barred the acceptance of widows. Her prayers were answered when her patron saints, Augustine, Nicholas of Tolentino, and John the Baptist appeared to her at night and accompanied her to the Augustinian convent, Santa Maria Magdalena; bolted gates and locked doors miraculously opened to permit her entrance into the chapel, where the astonished sisters discovered her the next morning. Seeing in her unusual entry the holy will of God, Rita was at last admitted into the convent, which was to be renamed in her honor during subsequent ages.

Inspired by a sermon preached by St. James of the Marches, she implored God for some participation in Christ’s sufferings and was divinely accorded a thorn wound in her forehead, which festered and produced such an offensive odor that the next fifteen years of her life were spent in reverential seclusion...At the time of her entrance into Heaven, the cell wherein she lay was filled with an extraordinary perfume; an astounding light emanated from the wound on her forehead; and the bells of the city are said to have been joyously pealed by angels.

The numerous miracles which occurred after her death and her sweetly perfumed body, which scented the entire church where she lay exposed, induced the civil and ecclesiastical authorities to install her remains in a place accessible to the pilgrims who constantly visited the bier. It was subsequently placed in the inner oratory where it was enshrined beneath an altar. In this position between the cloister and the church, the wooden sarcophagus could easily be seen and its precious contents venerated by both the pilgrims and the cloistered nuns.

St. Rita has taken her rightful position among the great saints who served in turn as wives, mothers, widows, and nuns, providentially given to us for our edification. She is still overwhelmingly and affectionately regarded by her many satisfied devotees around the world as the “Guardian Saint of Desperate & Impossible Cases.”
