

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

CORPUS CHRISTI

A great solemnity has this day risen upon our earth; a feast both to God and to men: for it is the feast of Christ the Mediator, who is present in the Sacred Host, that God may be given to man, and man to God. Divine union – such is the dignity to which man is permitted to aspire; and to this aspiration God has responded, even here below, by an invention which is all of heaven. It is today that man celebrates this marvel of God’s goodness...

The Holy Eucharist, both as Sacrifice and Sacrament, is the very center of the Christian religion; and therefore our Lord would have a fourfold testimony to be given, in the inspired writings, to its institution. Besides the accounts given by Saints Mathew, Mark, and Luke, we have also that of St. Paul...which he received from the lips of Jesus Himself, who vouchsafed to appear to him, after his conversion, and instruct him.

St. Paul lays particular stress on the power, given by our Lord to His disciples, of renewing the act which He Himself had just been doing. He tells us what the evangelists had not explicitly mentioned, that as often as a priest consecrates the Body and Blood of Christ, he shows (he announces) the death of the Lord: by that expression he tells us that the Sacrifice of the Cross, and that of our altars, is one and the same...The sinner, who has made his peace with God, will partake of this sacred Body with deep compunction, reproaching himself for having shed its Blood by his sins: the just man will approach the holy Table with humility, remembering how he, also, has had but too great a share in causing the innocent Lamb to suffer; and that, if he be at present in the state of grace, he owes it to the Blood of the Victim whose Flesh is about to be given to him for his nourishment. Liturgical Year X, Book I, from pages 185 & 256
