

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

SAINT PASCHAL BAYLON, Confessor Patron of Eucharistic Congresses - May 17

Born at Torre Hermosa in the Kingdom of Aragon, in the year 1540, St. Paschal Baylon spent his early childhood as a shepherd. So great was his desire for instruction that while tending his sheep he carried a book with him and begged those he met to teach him the alphabet. Thus, in a short time he learned to read. He led the solitary life of a shepherd until he was about twenty-four. By meditation, prayer and the reading of pious works, he advanced rapidly in perfection, so that when he decided to embrace the religious state and petitioned the Franciscans to admit him into their Order, he had already reached an eminent degree of sanctity. When he decided to become a Religious, he purposely avoided rich monasteries, for he said, "I was born poor, and I am resolved to die in poverty and penance."

In 1564 he entered among the Reformed Franciscans in the Kingdom of Valentia and insisted upon becoming simply a lay brother. For twenty-eight years he lived a perfect life in the austere Order he had chosen, a life of extreme poverty and of constant prayer, which even his labors did not interrupt. The saint was characterized by intense devotion to Our Lord in the Holy Eucharist. Toward the end of his life he frequently spent a great part of the night in prayer before the altar. God often favored him with ecstasies and raptures, but so great was his humility that he carefully avoided whatever might redound to his honor or praise. St. Paschal also had a singular devotion toward the Blessed Virgin. He died on May 17, 1592. Lives of the Saints, page 192-193

Spiritual Thought for the Week – Union with God

To abandon oneself to God simply consists in the total gift of our will to Him. When a soul can really say: "Lord, I have no other will but Yours," he has truly abandoned himself to God and is united to Him.

St. Francis de Sales

One day Our Lord appeared to St. Gertrude and said: "Behold, My daughter, in one hand I hold health, and in the other, illness. Choose the one you prefer." Throwing herself at His feet the saint cried: "Lord, I beg Thee not to give any thought to my will, only Thine. Do with me as Thou wish." Our Lord was very pleased with this answer and added: "Let those who wish Me to visit them often give Me the key to their will and never ask for it back."
