

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

SAINT JOHN EUDES - August 19

Saint John Eudes was born in France, November 14, 1601. He was an exemplary child and was extolled as one of the most brilliant students ever to attend the Jesuit College at Caen.

As a priest he was full of zeal for the salvation of souls. He worked valiantly among his countrymen and became known as one of the greatest missionaries of his day. Travelling throughout France, he taught the great truths of the faith and succeeded in making a host of conversions.

He founded the Congregation of the "Priests of Jesus and Mary" and the Congregation of "Sisters of Our Lady of Charity." The main purpose of the former was the direction of seminaries and the religious instruction of the people through missions... St. Eudes dedicated the seminary chapels of Caen & Coutances to the Sacred Hearts. The feast of the Holy Heart of Mary was celebrated for the first time in 1648, and that of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in 1672, each as a double of the first class with an octave. The Mass and Office proper to these were composed by Saint Eudes, who thus had the honor of preceding the Blessed Margaret Mary in establishing the devotion to the Sacred Hearts. For this reason, Pope Leo XIII recognized St. John Eudes as the "Author of the Liturgical Worship of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and Holy Heart of Mary"... He died in 1680.

PRAYER: O God, who wondrously inflamed Blessed John, Thy Confessor, rightly to promote the public worship of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary, and through him willed to establish new religious families in Thy Church, grant, we beseech Thee, that we who venerate his merits may also be taught by the examples of his virtues. Amen.

Spiritual Thought for the Week
"Simplicity"

If you should happen to do or say something which is not well received by everyone, do not for this reason stop to reflect on and examine your every word and action, for undoubtedly it is self-love which makes us seek to know whether or not what we say or do is approved. Simplicity leaves the outcome of its actions to Providence, to which it completely entrusts itself, without looking to the right or to the left.

St. Francis de Sales.

St. Francis practiced what he preached...when it was told him that a few disapproved of some of his activities, without becoming upset, he would answer: "We shouldn't be surprised by this. Not even the deeds of Our Lord Jesus Christ were approved by all. In fact, even today there are still many who censure them."
