

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

Saint Joseph of Cupertino

September 18

Saint Joseph's father died when Joseph was a child, and his mother had little affection for him, for he was sickly, clumsy, and always appeared preoccupied. At the age of seventeen he asked to be admitted by the Conventuals, but they found him too dull-witted. The Capuchins then received him, but dismissed him after eight months as unfitted. His mother's brother, a Conventual, then gave him employment in the friary as a servant, and he was given the tertiary habit. St. Joseph now performed the lowliest services so well and showed such humility and piety that he was admitted as a member of the Order. Though he had great difficulties with studies, he was ordained and said his first Mass with ecstatic fervor... He continued to perform the humblest duties, but his life was marked henceforth by ecstasies and especially levitations... So numerous were these phenomena that for thirty-five years he was not allowed to say Mass in public or attend public functions... He was subjected to harsh examinations, one by Pope Urban VIII himself, at whose sight Joseph promptly went into an ecstasy. To remove him from the public eye he was sent to a friary at Assisi, and here for a number of years he suffered severe trials. Crowds flocked to him seeking help and counsel in the confessional, and many conversions took place. Yet Joseph continued to be misunderstood and had to spend the last years of his life practically as a prisoner, first with the Capuchins, then with the Conventuals, though the miraculous manifestations continued until his death.

Spiritual Thought for the Week "Prayer"

Mental prayer consists in keeping our mind on what we are saying and meaning it, in thinking of Whom it is we are addressing and who we are who dare to converse with so great a Lord. These and similar reflections constitute mental prayer.
