

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

SAINT EUSEBIUS, Bishop & Martyr
December 16

St. Eusebius belonged to a noble family and was born on the island of Sardinia. His father is said to have died in captivity for the sake of the Faith. While still an infant, St. Eusebius went with his mother and sister to Rome, where he received a Christian education and where he was ordained a lector by Pope St. Sylvester. Later he went to Vercelli, where he joined the clergy of that church. When the episcopal chair of that city became vacant, St. Eusebius was elected to fill it. He was the first Bishop of the West to unite the clerical with the monastic life, for he lived in community with his clergy, anticipating, as it were the practice of the regular canons. The clergy he had formed under his own eyes became so renowned that other churches earnestly sought his disciples to be their Bishops.

In 354 St. Eusebius was commissioned by Pope Liberius, together with the famous Lucifer of Cagliari, to beg the Emperor Constantius to assemble a free Council. It met at Milan in 355. Seeing that the Arians would carry all things before them, St. Eusebius at first declined to take part in it, until pressed to do so by the Pope and his legates. He positively refused to subscribe to the condemnation of St. Athanasius, the greatest champion of the Faith in those days. In consequence of this the Emperor banished him to Scythopolis in Palestine, where he had to undergo great sufferings for the faith... In 361, after the death of Constantius, Julian the Apostate came to the throne and Catholic Bishops were returned from exile, among them St. Eusebius.

St. Eusebius died in the year 371, probably in August.. His relics are preserved in the Cathedral of Vercelli. Lives of the Saints, pgs. 492-493

“AN ACT OF ACCEPTING ONE’S OWN DEATH FROM THE HAND OF GOD”

The faithful who at any time in their lives, from a sincere spirit of love of God and with at least a contrite heart, express their intention of accepting calmly and gladly from the hand of God whatsoever manner of death it may please Him to send them, together with all its pain, anguish and suffering, may gain:

An indulgence of 7 years; A plenary indulgence at the hour of death, if they have devoutly made such an act at least once in their lifetime, after having fulfilled the usual condition.
