

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

Our Lady of Guadalupe's
Final Words to Juan Diego

She said, "Least of my sons, what is the matter?"

And as if to make light of his embarrassment he answered at first: "My dear child, my Lady! Why are you up so early? Are you well?" But then (and how breathless the words must have sounded), "Forgive me! My uncle is dying of cocolistle and desires me to fetch a priest to give him the Last Sacraments. It was no heedless promise I made to meet you yesterday morning and take the Bishop the sign you intended to send him. But my uncle fell ill."

The Blessed Virgin said: "My little son. Do not be distressed and afraid. Am I not here who am your Mother? Are you not under my shadow and protection? Your uncle will not die at this time. This very moment his health is restored. There is no reason now for the errand you set out on, and you can peacefully attend to mine. Go up to the top of the hill; cut the flowers that are growing there and bring them to me."

No flowers could be in bloom on the frozen hill. Nor could Juan's uncle be healed of his wasting sickness and be, all in one moment, perfectly well. But Juan did not question the Blessed Virgin's words...Castilian roses—exotic, impossible—were growing on the hilltop...she said, "You see, little son, this is the sign I am sending to the Bishop. Tell him that now he has his sign, he should build the temple I desire in this place. Do not let anyone but him see what you are carrying. Hold both sides until you are in his presence and have already told him how I intercepted you on your way to fetch a priest to give the Last Sacraments to your uncle, how I assured you he was perfectly healed and sent you up to cut these roses, and myself arranged them like this. Remember, little son, that you are my trusted ambassador, and this time the Bishop will believe all that you tell him."
