

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

SAINT AGNES, VM –Jan 21

The bloody edicts of the Emperor Diocletian against the Christians appeared in the year 303. In the persecution which they evoked, St. Agnes. Died. St. Augustine & St. Ambrose tell us that she was only thirteen years of age. The young noblemen of Rome, attracted by her wealth and beauty, vied with one another in endeavoring to obtain her hand in marriage, but she refused them all, saying that she had chosen a Spouse who could not be seen with mortal eyes. Her suitors, in hope of shaking her constancy, accused her of being a Christian. The kindness, as well as the threats of the judge had no effect upon her; fires were kindled, instruments of torture were placed before her eyes, but, immovable in her constancy, she surveyed them with heroic calmness. They sent her to a house of prostitution, but the sight of her inspired such awe that not one of the wicked youths of the city dared approach her. One bolder than the others, was suddenly struck with blindness and he fell trembling.

The youthful saint came forth from this den of infamy uncontaminated in mind and body, and still a pure spouse of Christ. The most prominent among her suitors was now so enraged that he incited the judge still more against her. The heroic virgin was condemned to be beheaded. "She went to the place of execution," says St. Ambrose, "more cheerfully than others go to their wedding." Amid the tears of the spectators the instrument of death fell, and her sinless soul took its flight to the Immortal Spouse whom she had loved better than her life. She was buried on the Via Nomentana, a short distance from Rome, and Constantine erected a church on the spot in her honor.

A DEVOUT EXERCISE FOR THE UNITY OF THE CHURCH - Raccolta #622

Ant. That they all may be one, as Thou, Father, in me and I in thee, that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

V. I say to thee, that thou art Peter,

R. And upon this rock I will build my Church.

Let us Pray.

Lord Jesus Christ, Who didst say to Thine Apostles: peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you, look not upon my sins, but upon the faith of Thy Church; and vouchsafe unto her that peace and unity which is agreeable to Thy will: Who livest and reignest God forever and ever.

Amen. An indulgence of 300 days during the octave of prayers for the unity of the Church from the Feast of the Chair of St. Peter in Rom (Jan 18) to the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul (Jan. 25). A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions at the end of the devout exercise.

Raccolta #624

Almighty and everlasting God, whose will is that all men should be saved and that none should perish, look upon the souls that are deceived by the guile of Satan, in order that the hearts of them that have gone astray may put aside all the perverseness of heresy, and, being truly repentant, may return to the unity of Thy truth. Through Christ our Lord. Amen. An indulgence of 3 years. A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, when this prayer has been devoutly recited every day for a month.
