

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

SAINT GREGORY THE GREAT
Pope, Confessor & Doctor of the Church
March 12 – Patron of Teachers

St. Gregory, born at Rome about the year 540, was the son of Gordianus, a wealthy senator, who later renounced the world and became one of the seven deacons of Rome. After he had acquired a thorough education, the Emperor Justin the Younger appointed him, in 574, Chief Magistrate of Rome, though he was only thirty-four years of age.

After the death of his father he built six monasteries in Sicily and founded a seventh in his own house in Rome, which became the Benedictine Monastery of St. Andrew. Here he himself assumed the monastic habit in 575, at the age of thirty-five.

After the death of Pelagius, St. Gregory was chosen Pope by the unanimous consent of priests and people. Now began those labors which have merited for him the title of great. His zeal extended over the entire known world, he was in contact with all the Churches of Christendom and, in spite of his bodily sufferings and innumerable labors, he found time to compose a great number of works. He is known above all for his magnificent contributions to the liturgy of the Mass and Office. He is one of the four great Doctors of the Latin Church. He died March 12, 604.

PRAYER: O God, Thou who hast given to the soul of Thy servant Gregory the rewards of everlasting bliss, mercifully grant that we who are oppressed by the weight of our sins, may be relieved by his intercession with Thee. Amen. Lives of the Saints, pages 104-105

Spiritual Thought for the Week - Humility

When one is outstanding in virtue, truly great before God and favored by Him and, notwithstanding this, he considers himself small and of no importance, he has that humility which is so pleasing to God and so rare among men. It is that humility found in so perfect a manner in the Blessed Virgin who, upon hearing herself chosen Mother of God, declared herself His handmaid.

St. Bernard

St. Teresa, thinking of the abundance of graces she received from God, would humiliate herself, saying that God sustained her in her weakness, and that by His divine help showed her how weak she was—just as props against a dilapidated house show its weakness. Spiritual Diary, Page 43
