

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

Saint Pius V – Pope and Confessor – May 5

Michael Ghislieri was born in Italy in 1504. His whole life was always guided by the most perfect maxims of Christian piety. At the age of fifteen he received the Dominican habit, and at once became a model of religious perfection. In 1528 he was ordained priest, and then taught philosophy and theology for sixteen years. He also filled other important positions in his Order.

Pope Paul IV in 1556 promoted him to the united Bishoprics of Nepi and Sutri in the Papal States, and in 1557 the same Pope created him cardinal, but his humility and other virtues only became more conspicuous in this exalted position. Pius IV, who succeeded Paul IV in 1559, moved him to the diocese of Mondori in Piedmont. At the conclave which was held on the death of Pius IV, St. Charles Borromeo united the suffrages in favor of Cardinal Alexandrinus, as Ghislieri was called, and he became Pope under the title of Pius V in 1566.

His life as Sovereign Pontiff was as exemplary as it had been while he was a simple Dominican Friar. It was during his pontificate that the celebrated victory of Lepanto was gained against the Turks under Don John of Austria. As a result of this victory he ordered the feast of the Holy Rosary to be observed on the first Sunday of October. He died in the year after this victory, on May 1, 1572, and was canonized by Clement XI in 1712.

PRAYER: O God, who for the overthrow of the enemies of Thy Church and for the restoration of divine worship deigned to choose Blessed Pius as Supreme Pontiff, grant that we may be defended by his patronage and so adhere to Thy service, that, overcoming all the wiles of our enemies, we may rejoice in perpetual peace. Amen.

Spiritual Thought for the Week – Prayer

In prayer, when our affections have already been aroused, we should not continue meditating and reflecting, but should pause to enjoy them and from time to time whisper words of sorrow, of love, of trustful abandonment, and the like, to Our Lord, according to how we feel inclined. This is the best part of prayer. Spiritual Diary, page 189
