

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight, or low-cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

SAINT PETER CELESTINE
Pope & Confessor – May 19

St. Peter was born in Apulia, Italy, in 1227. After a youth spent in piety and the acquisition of knowledge, he renounced the world at the age of twenty and retired to a solitary mountain where he took up his abode in a small cell, in which he lived three years. He was ordained priest at Rome, but in 1246 he returned to solitude and lived five years in a cave near Sulmona. With two companions he moved to Mount Majella in 1251, and after some time he admitted other disciples. He imposed the rule of St. Benedict upon them. With these the saint lived in the practice of the greatest austerity, and the community gathered around him finally ripened into the religious Order of the Celestinians, for which he built a monastery and for which he obtained the approbation of Pope Gregory X in 1274, under the Rule of St. Benedict. He lived to see thirty-six monasteries and six hundred Religious in his Order, which gradually spread over Europe.

In 1294 he was forced to accept the pontifical dignity, to which he was elected on account of his great sanctity. He succeeded Nicholas IV, after the See of Rome had been vacant two years and three months, taking the title of Celestine V. His ignorance of canon law and his inexperience in worldly matters rendered his new office extremely irksome. He was evidently more suited to the cloister than to the tiara. He took the advice of learned men and solemnly abdicated, after occupying the pontifical chair four months. The treatment he received from the new Pope, Boniface VIII, was not what he might have expected. The imprudence of certain persons caused Boniface to fear lest a disturbance might be created, so he had St. Celestine put in prison, where he died ten months later. Lives of the Saints, pages 194-195.

Prayer for the Week

O God, who raised Blessed Peter Celestine to the supreme pontificate, and taught him to prefer humility to that dignity, mercifully grant that following his example, we may despise all the things of this world and so deserve to attain to the rewards which Thou hast promised to the humble. Amen.
