

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight, or low-cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie.
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

SAINT PATRICK, BISHOP Apostle of Ireland

The date and place of St. Patrick's birth are uncertain. He was born about the year 387, the son of Calpornius and Conchessa. In his sixteenth year he was carried as a captive into Ireland and obliged to serve a heathen master as a herdsman. Escaping from captivity he prepared himself in the schools of Tours and Lerins to be the instrument and Apostle of God in converting Ireland. Pope Celestine I commissioned him, and having received episcopal consecration on 442, he began his wonder mission of winning to Christ a pagan nation, and making it an island famous for the seats of piety and learning. St. Patrick died March 17, 493, in the monastery of Saul, in Down in Ulster, where his remains, and thirty years later, the body of St. Bridgid, the Mary of Ireland, were buried in one grave.

PRAYER: O God, who vouchsafed to send Blessed Patrick, Thy Confessor and Bishop, to preach Thy glory to the Gentiles, grant by his merits and intercession that we may be enabled to accomplish by Thy mercy those things which Thou command us to do. Amen.

SAINT PATRICK'S PRAYER

I bind unto myself today the strong name of the Trinity, by invocation of the same, the Three in One, the One in Three. I bind this day to me forever by power of faith Christ's incarnation, His baptism in the Jordan river, His death on the Cross for my salvation; His bursting from the spiced tomb, His riding up the heavenly way, His coming at the day of doom I bind unto myself today. I bind unto myself today the power of God to hold and lead, His eye to watch, His might to stay, His ear to harken to my need, The wisdom of my God to teach, His hand to guide, His shield to ward, The Word of God to give me speech, His heavenly host to be my guard.

Christ be with me, Christ within me, Christ behind me, Christ before me, Christ beside me, Christ to win me; Christ to comfort and restore me; Christ beneath me, Christ above me, Christ in quiet, Christ in danger, Christ in hearts of all that love me, Christ in mouth of friend and stranger.

I bind unto myself the name, the strong name of the Trinity, by invocation of the same, the Three in One, and One in Three, of whom all nature hath creation, eternal Father, Spirit, Word; Praise to the God of my salvation, salvation is of Christ the Lord!
