

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight, or low-cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie.
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

SAINT RITA OF CASCIA, Widow – May 22
Patroness of Impossible Cases

St. Rita of Cascia, passed through the single, married, widowed and religious states of life and reached sanctity in all of them. Her feast day is May 22nd, and she was canonized on May 24, 1900, by Pope Leo XIII while more than 80,000 people witnessed the beautiful ceremony. She is a shining model for all of us; by her heroic obedience and purity to the young and unmarried; by her loving care and motherly devotion to married people; and to the Religious by her fidelity to her vows for forty-three years. We who suffer and bear our cross can learn patience and resignation from St. Rita whose forehead was pierced by a thorn from the crown of our Crucified Christ. The difficulties of her life are the difficulties of millions of others, and this makes St. Rita everybody's Saint! The Italian town of Cascia is fortunate in possessing the earthly remains of a great saint. She is the advocate and helper in desperate cases.

A Prayer -- Raccolta #567

O God, who didst vouchsafe to communicate so great a grace to Saint Rita that she imitated Thine example in the love of enemies and bore in her heart and on her countenance the sacred marks of Thy love and passion: grant, we beseech Thee, by her merits and intercession, that we may love our enemies and ever contemplate with deep contrition the sorrows of Thy Passion: Who livest and reignest world without end. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days, once a day. A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if the daily recitation of this prayer is continued for a month.
