

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight, or low-cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie.
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

SAINT MARTIN OF TOURS

Bishop & Confessor – November 11

This great and renowned saint was born about the year 317. At ten years of age, against the will of his parents, St. Martin enrolled himself among the catechumens in order to be instructed in the doctrines of Christianity. In his eighteenth year he received the Sacrament of Baptism and some time later he entered the military service. He next went to St. Hilary, Bishop of Poitiers, by whom he was ordained exorcist...He followed him to Poitiers and built a monastery at Ligugé, where he lived until he was chosen Bishop of Tours in 371.

In his new dignity he continued to lead the same humble and mortified life as before. At first, he lived in a little cell near the church, but he afterward laid the foundations of the celebrated monastery of Marmoutier, which then consisted only of a series of grottos in the rock, or wooden cells, in which the holy Bishop and his disciples dwelt and performed their exercises of piety. A number of disciples flocked to his monastic standard, and he thus became the founder of monasticism in Gaul...This monastery also became a nursery of Bishops, such was the reputation of the disciples of St. Martin.

The zealous labors of the saint succeeded in extirpating idolatry from the diocese of Tours and the neighboring parts of Gaul. He, as well as St. Ambrose, energetically protested against those who would put heretics to death. His virtues were also rewarded by an extraordinary gift of miracles. After a long life of more than eighty years, he died peacefully in the year 397.

Mary Immaculate Queen Parish Announcements

FOOD BASKETS for needy families will once again be provided by our parish this Thanksgiving. Donations of non-perishable food items may be placed in the boxes provided in the vestibule. Monetary donations should be placed in the Sunday collection in a clearly marked envelope. Monday, Nov. 20, is the deadline for submitting donations of food or money.

SUNDAY BREAKFAST: Our monthly school-support breakfast takes place after 9:00 am Mass today. Please consider donating according to the size of your family. Thank you for supporting our parish school.

DOCTRINE CLASS: There will be a doctrine class for adults this Thurs., Nov. 9th, at 7:00 pm in the seminary classroom. All are welcome to attend. The class will also be live streamed on our parish website.

PARISH BOARD MEETING: There will be a parish board meeting on Sat., Nov. 18, at 3:00 pm in the seminary classroom. All parishioners are welcome to attend.

INDULGENCES: Let us continue, especially this month, to do all we can to help the souls in purgatory by our prayers, sacrifices, and gaining of indulgences

PROPER DRESS AT MASS: Please note the dress code, as printed on the back of the bulletin. In particular, we urge men to wear a dress shirt and tie, along with a suit coat or blazer. Women, likewise, should not only always dress modestly, but remember that on Sundays we should wear our “Sunday Best.”

PRIESTS’ TRAVELS: Father Aloysius is in Rosamond, California today.

PARENTS: If you bring small children to the Communion rail during the distribution of Holy Communion, please do not allow them to stand on the kneeling pad. They should either kneel or stand on the floor by your side. Also, please make sure the priest (especially visiting priests) is aware of which children may not receive Holy Communion.
