

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight, or low-cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie.
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

SAINT ROSE OF LIMA – August 30

This lovely flower of sanctity, the first canonized Saint of the New World, was born at Lima in 1586. As a child, while still in the cradle, her silence under a painful surgical operation proved the thirst for suffering already consuming her heart. At an early age she took service to support her impoverished parents and worked for them day and night. Despite hardships and austerities her beauty ripened with increasing age...From fear of vanity she cut off her hair, blistered her face with pepper and her hands with lime. For further security she enrolled herself in the Third order of St. Dominic, took St. Catherine of Siena as her model, and redoubled her penance.

The Blessed Sacrament seemed almost her only food. Her love for it was intense. When the Dutch fleet prepared to attack the town, Rose took her place before the tabernacle and wept that she was not worthy to die in its defense. All her sufferings were offered for the conversion of sinners, and the thought of the multitudes in hell was ever before her soul. She died in 1617, at the age of thirty-one.

SAINT AUGUSTINE – August 28
Bishop, Confessor, Doctor of the Church

Saint Augustine was born at Tagaste in Africa to noble parents. As a child he was so apt in learning that in a short time he far surpassed in knowledge all those of his own age. When he was a young man, he went to Carthage where he fell into the Manichæan heresy. Later on, he journeyed to Rome, and was sent thence to Milan to teach rhetoric. Having frequently listened to the teaching of Ambrose the bishop, he was through his influence inflamed with a desire of the Catholic faith and was baptized by him at the age of thirty-three. On his return to Africa, as his holy life was in keeping with his religion, Valerius the bishop, who was then renowned for his sanctity, ordained him priest. It was at this time that he founded a religious community with whom he lived, sharing their food and dress, and training them with the utmost care in the rules of apostolic life and teaching...

His numerous works are full of piety, deep wisdom and eloquence, and throw the greatest light on Christian doctrine, so that he is the great master and guide of all those who later on reduced theological teaching to method. While the Vandals were devastating Africa, and Hippo had been besieged by them for three months, Augustine was seized with a fever. When he perceived that his death was at hand, he had the penitential psalms of David placed before him and used to read them with an abundance of tears. He was accustomed to say that no one, even though not conscious to himself of any sin, ought to be presumptuous enough to die without repentance. He was in full possession of his faculties and intent on prayer to the end. After exhorting his brethren who were around him, to charity, piety and the practice of every virtue, he passed to heaven, having lived seventy-six years, and thirty-six as a bishop.

✠ Mary Immaculate Queen Parish Announcements ✠

NEW SCHOOL YEAR Classes begin in Saint Joseph Seminary tomorrow; classes for the students of Mary Immaculate Queen School begin Tuesday. Also, please note that we return this week to the normal school-time schedule of Masses.

NOVENA PRAYERS: As we have done in past years, we will pray a novena in preparation for the feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, for the intention of the success of the new school year. These prayers will begin on August 30.

MASS INTENTIONS: Due to the large number of Mass intentions received lately, we will return to the previous policy of limiting the number of Mass requests that can be submitted to a maximum of two per month per household.

PARISH POTLUCK: There will be a parish potluck on Sunday, September 8th, after the 9:00 Mass, in honor of the 50th anniversary of Fr. Mary Benedict's and Sr. Mary Imelda's profession of First Vows. Please contact Kathy O'Hara to let her know what dish you will bring (208-772-7619).

SUNDAY DRESS: Remember the importance of dressing well for Mass, especially on Sundays. Men should wear a dress shirt and tie (suitcoat may be dispensed in summer, due to the heat.). Women should wear a dress or skirt that covers the knees fully, whether standing or sitting, with a blouse that is not form-fitting, providing full coverage in front and back, reaching at least to the elbows on the arms. How we dress in church indicates our reverence for God in His house.
