

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight, or low-cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie.
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

The Heroic Act of Charity

Raccolta #594

a) The faithful who make the heroic act in favor of the souls detained in purgatory, may gain:

A plenary indulgence, applicable only to the dead:

1) On any day that they receive Holy Communion, if they have made their confession and visited some church or public oratory and prayed for the intentions of Holy Mother Church.

2) On any Monday of the year, or if some impediment arises, on the following Sunday, if they attend Mass in supplication for the faithful departed and moreover fulfill the usual conditions.

Elements of the Heroic Act of Charity

The Heroic Act is a total donation to the souls in purgatory of all that we can give them. A decree of the Sacred Congregation of Indulgences of December 18, 1885, thus describes this donation: “The Heroic Act of Charity in favor of the souls detained in purgatory consists in this, that a member of the Church militant ... offers to God for the souls in purgatory all the satisfactory works which he will perform during his lifetime, and also all the suffrages, which may accrue to him after his death.”

The heroism of this act consists in this: that by it we give to the suffering souls not only the satisfactory value of all the works of our life, but also all the suffrages which shall be given to us after our death, without reserving anything wherewith to discharge our own debt. The act is thus one of selfless charity. Moreover, we deposit these treasures into the hands of the Blessed Virgin Mary, that she may distribute them according to her good pleasure, to those souls which she desires to deliver from purgatory. By so doing, we even sacrifice the freedom to apply our suffrages to departed souls of our own choice. We thereby surrender on behalf of the suffering souls even the pleasure of denoting the beneficiary of our charity. By this devotion we relinquish all that we possibly can – a heroic act indeed.

How, then, does one make this heroic act? The Sacred Congregation replies, through the decree quoted above, that a member of the Church militant makes this donation, “either using a set formula or simply by an act of his will.” It is important, however, that one fully understands what he is doing before making the Heroic Act, and thus one ought to consult his confessor before undertaking the act. Should anyone who has made the act ever regret having done so, he may revoke it by a mere act of his will.
